

St. Marks National Wildlife Refuge
Endangered Species Pre-Post Test

Name _____ Date _____
School _____ Pre or Post Test(circle one)

Circle the letter of the correct answer.

1. Species that are in immediate danger of becoming extinct, throughout all or a significant portion of its range as a result of one or more causes, including loss of habitat, overexploitation, competition or disease are listed as

- a. critically endangered
- b. threatened
- c. rare
- d. endangered

2. Species that will not survive without direct human intervention.

- a. critically endangered
- b. threatened
- c. rare
- d. endangered

3. Species that are present in their range, but threatened because of decline in numbers.

- a. critically endangered
- b. threatened species
- c. endangered
- d. extinct

4. Species not presently in danger, but of concern because of low numbers, it may become threatened if its present environmental conditions worsen. Note: Some species were always rare because of their position in the food chain or due to habitat preference.

- a. extinct
- b. rare
- c. endangered
- d. peripheral

5. Complete disappearance of a species.

- a. extinct
- b. peripheral
- c. endangered
- d. rare

6. Scarce in area because it is fringe or marginal habitat.

- a. extinct
- b. peripheral
- c. rare
- d. endangered

7. Organisms change throughout their lifetimes.

- a. true
- b. false

8. A habitat is made up of both living and non-living factors on which an animal depends.

- a. true
- b. false

9. Habitat destruction does not cause animals to become endangered or threatened.

- a. true
- b. false

10. Plants can be endangered.

a. true

b. false

11. The welfare of one species of plant or animal has no effect on other species.

a. true

b. false

12. List 3 endangered species of animals found in Florida.

---

---

---

13. List three things all animals need.

---

---

---