Hi. Know you are busy today and I too am covered up so if we don't tie off the drop-in review/comments for Noreen until tomorrow morning I think that's alright. Thanks.

Matt - I also heard from Jesse, who was fine with the document as a platform to move forward to discussions. I've not heard back from Dawn as she is out this afternoon, but should be in first thing in the morning.

So, except for prescribed fire you have our final answer.

Hey folks -

Thanks for the feedback on the proposed drop-in language from BLM. I took the comments provided on individual sections, and added them to my comments to create the attached document. Please take a look at the comments provided and let me know if you are o.k with moving this forward for discussion with BLM.

Dawn - I added some text to the a) and b) under prescribed fire. I don't know if it helps and please feel free to correct.

of course, this was desired about a month ago so the sooner you can review and give me feedback the better. Much appreciated!.
