Thanks, Kate -

Yeah, I thought about screen shots. But as you note, everyone saw this stuff during the webinar, and can watch it or parts of it again as needed. so in the interest of time, I decided on text-only.

Thanks again,
H

This is awesome!

I made a few suggestions (<https://portal.doi.net/usfws/SG/CEDeval/Forms/ByState.aspx>), but nothing major.

The only thing that occurs to me as being - potentially- a useful addition would be screen shots of the CED to show folks exactly where the various buttons/drop-downs are located. Totally your call - it's quite possible that it's not worth the time/energy it would take (since you've already done all the webinars).

Thanks,
K

Hi Kate and Craig,

See attached, FYI. Those webinars we did for FO biologists on Tuesday and Wednesday were pretty detailed, so to follow up I wanted to provide detailed, written instructions and (I hope) head off some questions and keep Lief's phone from ringing off the hook!

If you see any fatal flaws here, please let me know ASAP -- I would like to distribute this to the FO folks today. Lief has worked this over too.

Thanks - enjoy your snowy weekend!
Holly
