I noticed a few typos and I agree with Jesse's comment on the last bullet - I don't understand what we are trying to say. Otherwise I'm good with the list.

Hey folks - Hate to do this to you but I need a super quick review of the attached document. I was tasked late yesterday with summarizing and prioritizing the comments we provided on the drop-in language. I've not changed any of the comments you previously provided and reviewed, but rather pulled them out into a list for ease of reading. I was asked to identify those that we really felt necessary to have, and those that may not be worth additional efforts.

Please take a look and see if you agree with my list division. There is no order to the list other than I just added items in the order presented by BLM's original document. Leadership will be provided both the summary and the BLM document with our comments and edits.

Edits/corrections always welcome.

Of course, my RO is on my back to have this done, so if you can take a look ASAP I would be appreciative.

Thanks - p
