---

I have kid drop off duty Mon morning so won't be there until 9 am. Let me know if you want me to get a tasker out this weekend to Lara, Pat and others as necessary so they can get after it first thing Monday and we have a jump on this. Thanks.

Subject: Stronghold maps asap Monday

Guys, sorry to send this today but I now see I have a 10 am call on this topic Monday. Please plan to join me. So, first thing on Monday we need to sit down together and review each stronghold map. We need hard copies of each showing ownership within and PHMA, GHMA, and "non habitat" within each polygon. Acreage of each category would be helpful too. I know the questions have been rattling around for a week or two so I hope this is not too difficult to pull together. I will close RD staff meeting by 9 to give us time to talk in advance of the 10 am.

Thank you.
