

2017 – Dr. Cynthia-Lou Coleman

In 2017, we were pleased to have Dr. Cynthia-Lou Coleman as the keynote speaker at Science Of The Service. Dr. Coleman was an Associate Professor of Communication at Portland state University. Dr. Coleman's areas of inquiry focused on the social construction of science in mainstream discourse and the effects of framing on biopolitical policies that impact American Indian communities. She has held fellowships with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Smithsonian National Museum of the American Indian. She taught communication theory and research methods. Dr. Coleman's interest and expertise related directly to Science Of The Service, which aimed to highlight science communication.
