

2022 Fall Tribal Coordination Meeting

CARLSBAD FISH & WILDLIFE OFFICE/ PALM SPRINGS FISH & WILDLIFE OFFICE

U.S. FISH AND WILDLIFE SERVICE

For Today

National Updates

- White House Tribal Summit
- Indigenous Traditional Ecological Knowledge
- Co-Stewardship and Co-Management, Director's Order 227

Regional Updates

- Traditional Ecological Knowledge Workshop
- Tribal Relations Training
- FY22 Tribal Wildlife Grants

National Update: Administration

2022 White House Tribal Summit

- November 30 and December 1, 2022
- Sign-up by November 14, 2022
- Attached Invitation

Indigenous Traditional Ecological Knowledge

- Continued Efforts in incorporating ITEK
- Regional Importance

National Update: USFWS

Co-Stewardship/Co-Management

- Director's Order 227, September 8, 2022
- "Co-stewardship broadly means the cooperative collaborative engagements of the Service with Tribes....related to shared interests..."
- Region is working to Identify areas of shared interest and collaboration

Regional
Updates:

California
Nevada
Klamath

Traditional Ecological Knowledge

- Listing Program for Ecological Services held TEK Workshop for Project Leaders

Regional Tribal Relations Training

- Training Event was held last month
- Tribal Guest Panel: TEK and Tribal Professionals

FY22 Tribal Wildlife Grants

- 7 Regional Tribes awarded
- $1.4 Million in awards

Update: Regional Native American Liaison

Tribal Communication and Concerns

- Encourage continued communications with FWO

Regional Native American Liaison and FWO

- Close Coordination
- Email: michael_eldon_brown@fws.gov