

Species Protective Measures for Boat Ramp Projects

The project design will ensure its stability and effectiveness post construction. The following are examples of measures that may be implemented to accomplish this:

1. No uncured concrete or runoff from uncured concrete should be allowed to enter the water.
2. If using riprap, use clean riprap to armor cut or fill slopes below normal high water elevation.