Matt - I'll jump in here. Yes, we would need a new appraisal. That said, I'm not in favor of doing so because the pink house folks have no exchange parcel and the odds of us encountering one in our work regionally are slim. Knowing that, I believe it wouldn't be a wise expenditure of funds to reappraise at this time.

Thanks Bill. So I take that to mean, if we were to proceed, a new appraisal must be ordered, which would be 6-9 months out -- is that correct?

Matt,

Regarding your recent chat:

"Hello Bill -- could you please remind me where we are now with the pink house appraisal? Are we moving forward with the $2,500 micropurchase to re-evaluate? I have a meeting with Rochelle this Fri. thank you."

I spoke with the appraiser, he is limited to only providing raw data and a comment on general market trends. His comment was that any statement regarding $ or % change in value would be an appraisal. Mark and I agree this does not meet our needs so I don't see a need to proceed.

Bill
