This is indeed G2G. Ron's style is to be more casual and collaborative. He does not want to hit us over the head with "this is a formal request for G2G consultation." Present in the meeting will be Chairman Allen, at least one other member of tribal council, and Tribal Natural Resources Director Hansi Hals. This is a very important issue to the Chairman and the Tribe.

Robyn will honor request and looks forward to meeting with Ron. . She was questioning whether we should call it a G-to-G. Maybe I'm splitting hairs, but wanted to get the answer...

I'd want to see the language on the original request (last year), but I think this is a question of semantics.

The ask may be a personal meeting, but the result is a G to G. Would we not honor the request for a personal meeting (which we are late in responding to) because it doesn't say G2G?

I realize the legal standard is different, but is our response? (Nathan, your thoughts?)

are we certain the Jamestown S'Klallam is a GtoG?. recent Email and the 3/18 letter do not use GtoG rather "personal meeting" and "meet with you personally" are used....
