Hi Charlie:

My name is Alex Smith, and I am a Deputy Supervisor at the Washington Department of Natural Resources. Brad Thompson suggested that you might be the right person to discuss an issue we are having in the Dungeness National Wildlife Refuge related to challenges the Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe is having in accessing land they lease from us in the DNWR.

We have discussed the issue with the Refuge Manager, have been unable to resolve it at that level and would like to discuss it with you. Is there a time that you can spare 30 minutes for a phone conversation with me and our Aquatics Division Manager Tom Gorman? Let us know what date(s) and time(s) might work for you.

We appreciate your help with this and look forward to talking with you.
