Hi Robyn,

Happy to meet with you all to provide an update. Friday or Monday would be best for me.

Thanks,
Jenny

Subject: Dungeness/JST JSO analysis: update Friday March 4?

The end of next week I would like to hear from the work group about your progress: how you are parsing through this matter, what you see as steps (and timeline) ahead. This update would be for me and Cynthia and Scott and Hugh, and I'm copying Chanelle so she can see if (miraculously) there is time on the calendar for this next Friday March 4. If not, she'll look at Thursday March 3, or Monday March 7.

In the course of describing the tribe's interests (including their precise proposal) in the analysis, you might already have a meeting scheduled to hear from JST. If needed, let Scott or Hugh or me know if we could be of assistance with those introductions.

Thank you for your work on this; I look forward to hearing how it's going. I anticipate a 30 minute meeting.

Thank you all.
Robyn
