Gerry:

Gabrielle left work at 5pm yesterday, so she did not get your email (she does not work on Tuesdays and Thursdays).

It looks like you did not get any emails either, perhaps due to your email inbox being full.

I have a copy of Gabrielle's comment summary she prepared yesterday and I'll bring it to the meeting tomorrow for us to discuss.

It's unfortunate that EPA did not provide us with their comments by Monday the 13th as requested.

We still have not received anything from them, so it will not be possible to review them tomorrow.

I will send you the draft Agenda for tomorrow that we discussed last week and can distribute it to the invite list for you, since you have been rather busy this week.

You can call me any time today if you have questions –

Dan Grout

Gabrielle,

I hope you haven't tried sending anything to me today that got bounced back. I think my email is filling up.

When you finish with a summary of comments, please email to me and I will forward to the group along with an agenda. I have to leave office now but if you need to talk today, call my cell.
