Wings Over Water Wildlife Festival Encore

The annual Wings Over Water Wildlife Festival began in 1997 to connect the public with wildlife and wildland experiences in regional national wildlife refuges. Hosted across six refuges in northeastern North Carolina, the festival features about 60 programs in total, including birding, paddling, photography, and natural history, making it one of the premier East Coast wildlife festivals. Program schedule and registration can be found on the festival website at <https://wingsoverwater.org/>
