Celebrate Pollinators and Native Plants

The Ankeny Hill Nature Center is hosting a free 'Bees and Blooms' event on Saturday, June 25th from 10 am-4 pm. All are welcome!

Volunteers will be onsite to engage visitors in outdoor activities that celebrate Oregon's pollinators! Visitors are invited to discover the beauty and variety of our native bees and butterflies, create pollinator related crafts, take a native plant discovery walk on the trails, and more!

Free information about native plants, their colors and bloom time and how to make pollinator friendly places at home.
