No red flags but two things to note. Pleased to see that it now emphasizes need to complete plan revisions promptly. In second from last paragraph, part of the paragraph is missing. In last paragraph, the word "determine" is missing and "e".

Folks,

As some of you know, we have direction from leadership to complete the "resolution" memo, i.e., our list of outstanding concerns with the federal planning process that is a follow up to our 3/15/14 draft memo (the "marker" memo), by COB today (10/20). Attached is the current draft we prepared in conjunction with Dan and Noreen's recent related meeting with BLM leadership. While there is a great deal in play that could affect the content of this version, we don't have anything firmer from our federal partners then when we drafted this version so we are treating this as current.

Please review again and let us know immediately, or your R/DRDs, have any critical concerns. We are hopeful everyone can sign off quickly on this since we discussed in detail the content of this memo previously, but we want to make sure we have a corporate embrace of this version before we provide it to SOL, who is standing by to conduct a rapid review this afternoon so we need any feedback before then. Thanks in advance, and please let us know if you have any immediate questions.

Matt
