Totally get it. I've been on all of them so we should be fine. You'll be able to answer San B questions but there is probably nothing too specific you'll need to know. If we need to follow up on anything we can do that too.

Ok, he asked for me to be on it in his place which I'm happy to still do. Just wanted to know what was expected of me

Nope, he is off this whole week.

So... has Bill explained BA staging sites to you or should I figure that out today?

Is Bill not going to be on it?

The main topics are staging areas on BA (us), status of dust suppressant chemicals on San B and status of gabions on San B (them). Plus anything else that will popup primarily on BA because it is full throttle now.

Hey Juliette,
I think I should be able to access the call from what Bill sent me. Is there anything I should be expecting for this call? Do I need to be ready to brief people on anything specifically? Just want to be prepared. Thanks!
