We're waiting for data to come from the folks in California. They said by the end of the week last week but that seems to have slipped on their end due to the New Year. I reached out to them yesterday and haven't heard back. I'll ping them again.

Hi Bruce, I just checked our folder and can't find it. It appears to refer to environmental contaminants. Chuck or Ken, can you provide Bruce with the document? Thanks. Rob

Rob,

There was no Appendix D included with the upload. It is mentioned on lines 3254 and 4353. If you can upload it or email me a copy, I'll distribute it to ECPO.

Thanks,
