Jim asked for a list of individuals from the Service to work on technical details of the white paper. After I provided, this was the last message I received from Jim on 3/10

“Thanks Nathan we are putting together some clarifying information based on your points and I will send out some times for a possible call, once we have a better handle on completion of that.”

I’ve received nothing since.

Hi Nathan and Drue.

What is status of R-Project discussions with NPPD? Just thought I would check in.
