Subject: Grizzly Bear Five-Year Review RTM
When: Wednesday, December 2, 2020 1:00 PM-5:00 PM.
Where:

Hi all,

I hope you are all safe and well. Given the current situation, we will be holding this RTM remotely. As such, we are updating the calendar hold to more accurately reflect the times during which we will meet (since we do not need to plan for travel days). During our Recommendation Team Meeting, decision-makers will, based on the information in the grizzly bear Species Status Assessment (SSA), come to consensus on the status recommendations to present in the grizzly bear five-year review. We may also discuss other outstanding grizzly bear topics during this time.

We will meet for a half day on Wednesday, December 2 (from 1pm to 5pm MT) and for a full day on Thursday, December 3 (from 9:30am MT until 5pm MT). We will break for a long lunch (60-90 minutes) on Thursday. We will share a more detailed agenda as we approach the event.

We are still expecting to share the updated draft SSA with you all on or around November 9 so you will have ample time to review the information prior to the RTM.

If you anticipate having any issues joining a Teams meeting (e.g., if we will need a phone line), please let me know ASAP so I can coordinate with the appropriate individuals to recreate this event in a different format.

Reach out with any questions or concerns!
Alex Kasdin and the Grizzly Bear Recovery Team
