We believe they are so long as they follow along with agency coordination. Then rather than having FWS staff onsite, have TPWD or SpaceX call us (Chris) if they come upon a plover or red knot or aplomado or sea turtles and ask us what to do.

Ok, but are they covered under the BCO for debris cleanup?

Here is some paragraphs I took out of the BO and Anomaly Plan regarding TPWD and other agency coordination in the event of an anomaly or mishap.

It also includes some language from the TPWD/SpaceX MOA and who to notify if foreign land is impacted and notification to FAA.
