Attachment Withheld - b5 Deliberative Process

Hi Cathy,

Attached are those sections of the BO that I've tackled thus far. I will stress that it is very rough at this point. For instance, I haven't gone back and read what I've typed so far, there may be some language consistency issues, and I've left notes for myself to come back and work on specific sections :) I started out not using track changes, but ended up switching to them later on to keep track of where I was. For ease of reviewing, you may just want to accept all changes. Patrice has not had a chance to look this over.

Sorry it's not in a more reviewer friendly shape right now!
