Okay, but if the current FPA is reinstated if delisting occurs, it will not be in sync with the changes in the CS. Managers will have 2 sets of rules that are not completely compatible.

I talked with Chris and we are going to propose adding an update on the Forest Plan Amendment to the YES agenda. Chris did talk to Dan and USDA lawyers do not think an amendment is necessary to incorporate the new strategy. The current Forest Plan Amendment is suspended with the relisting of the grizzly bear but will be reinstated if delisting occurs again. Hope this makes sense…
