Did you get the answer you needed on the filing system, Jennifer?

I saw Michel's response and it wasn't super helpful in terms of informing your filing system. Perhaps its best to file alphabetically by sender? I am just trying to figure out the way that would be easiest to locate a comment if necessary.

Hmmm, bummer. Do you know about how many comments in hard copy you have?

Unfortunately the hard copies that I get sent do not contain the sequential id but a randomized alpha-numeric tracking number.

I am definitely not an expert on this but it might be useful to sort them by the Document ID number from Regulations.Gov. Do the hard copies have those ID numbers on them?

Would you be able to give me a call so I can ask you some questions about the Humane Society CD? It'd be a huge help. My number is 609-610-2060.

Thanks!

Hi Alex,

I have all of the hard copies and located the CD from the Humane Society. I have also found cds from EarthJustice and the Sierra Club. Do you need a copy of the CD?

Not sure if you can answer this question, but I am trying to figure out the most efficient way to store these comments. Previously this office received all of them directly, numbered them sequentially, indexed and put them in binders. This time the comments are assigned a random alpha numerical code. Any suggestions on indexing and placing them in binders for ease of future reference?

Thanks!

Hi Jennifer,

Two emails in one day! Sarah and I are on the hunt for the CD that the Humane Society sent with their form letters. Michel Bagbonon at PPM told us that any hard copies of comments, CDs, or USBs were sent to the Point of Contact for the proposed rule, which in this case was Chris Servheen. Recognizing Chris' retirement, do you know where this CD might have ended up?

Thanks for your help!
