Ok sounds good. We can get those stats from the DiscoverText metadata.

Sounds good! I'll let you know if I end up having evening time this week that I can use to look at delisting and DPS.

Apologies for the unfortuante timing of being away from the office. Do also let me know if there are other categories you'd like me to summarize come July 11/12.

Those two cds are everything that I need for now. I will keep you updated on the processing of the public comments. If I get to the DPS and delisting issues before July 11/12 I will let you know.

Thanks!

Now it's my turn! I just processed what you said. These two CDs are two different. The one I sent you a few weeks back was the entire bulk download. The one I sent last week only has the highly substantive comments. Let me know if that's not what you need!

I am so sorry! I have so much going on that I forgot you'd already sent a cd of the bulk download and I just found it again!
