Hi Seth,

Do you think that second list you are discussing ("list of leadership on the most substantive/concerning issues") will come out of our meeting on the 14th? Or is this something you want prior to that meeting?

So, I've asked Jennifer to come up with a document (1) providing a generalized summary (e.g., peer review largely supportive...), (2) listing the peer reviewers selected by the contractor and describing how they represented a variety of applicable expertise including (i.e., why they were chosen); (3) they generally weighed in on the following issues (list the different areas); (4) the most substantive comments which we are considering at this time included (hopefully a shorter list). This should be in the neighborhood of a page.

This is a good start. Any chance you could get on the phone tomorrow morning?

Thanks,

Seth

Hi Seth,

I wanted to discuss what is needed in the peer review summary for media questions. I'm attaching what I have so far. It is still fairly detailed. Please give me a call if you want to discuss it or feel free to edit away.

Thank you,

Jennifer
