when you give the intro - can you speak to how these were grouped and whether they are "verbatim" or generalized?

I assume you pulled all that were editorial only.

You might also indicate which issues we think we might have already addressed (through the steering committee) or if you already pulled those comments.

Thanks. I will do brief intro with numbers and where we are at in process and turn it over to you. JB

Yes, I think for the issues that we want the steering committee to make changes to address we should provide the more detailed points.
