I've paused my work on the timeline until I get an answer from the NPS as to whether this is something they would agree to. I'm hoping we will get more clarity from them soon.

Jennifer
Last time we spoke, you were making phone calls about the CS language pertaining to 2-year timeline on developed sites. Have you got anything yet?, or are you still working on this? We're eager to help if we can. Hope all is well on the home front.
