CS proposed revisions_DRAFT 1Sept2016Idaho.docx

Mary and Jennifer-attached are my minor edits to the working draft circulated to YES members prior to our 9/8/16 meeting with comments inserted for every edit. I offered some wordsmithing on pages 106/7 that I felt improved the existing revisions but they are only suggestions. Brian Nesvik will offer some language to the Steering Committee to help address the question about duration of commitment-he will insert the language on the signature page as I suggested on 9/8/16.

Subject: Draft Notes from Sept 8th meeting and Logistics for Upcoming Meetings

Fellow YES members - please find attached the Draft notes from our Sept 8th meeting/call. With these notes, we are not attempting to capture the essence of all discussions. We do want to capture decisions, follow-up items, and an adequate record of the meeting.

Please review and get suggested edits in if we missed anything critical, paying particular attention to assignments. I plan to post these to the IGBC website by the end of next week, September 23rd.

Our next meeting will be Monday October 3rd at the Jackson Lake Lodge. We hope most can make it in person. There will be a conference line available. We will start at 10 a.m. Plan to go as late as 4 p.m. We will get out a final agenda the week before the meeting. Due to the expense, we will only be providing coffee. Bring whatever snacks you need. There is a restaurant on-site for meals.

Lodging is available at the Jackson Lake Lodge. For reservations, call 307-543-3100, choose Option 2. They will give the government rate if they are below 80% occupancy.

The November YES Meeting will be November 16th and 17th in Cody. It will be preceded by the GYCC meeting on the 15th and 16th. We will be at the Buffalo Bill Center of the West. There are several motels in Cody. We have held a block of rooms at the Holiday Inn, under the "Greater Yellowstone Coordinating Committee" with a $104/night government rate. Their phone number is 307-587-5555.

Thanks to all.

Mary
