I am confused -this is not what I referred to as Alternative A. Which is what Loren came up with... This version has some of the revisions we suggested through Alternative C.

Here is the clean version of Alternative A.

All,

This is the version developed based on the PM subgroup discussion. It is the "Version A" that Jodi referenced in her e-mail that I forwarded on Monday.

This addresses what the YGBCC would do in the future with a new population estimator.
