hi Lisa,

How's it going? Great? Great! me too.

Say, I finally did a once over on the Strategy and I feel like I've gotten as far as I can get by myself. I skipped Ch. 2 (because I don't know what's going on) and Ch. 3 (because you've already gone over ch. 3 w/ a fine-toothed comb). Do you have a draft of Ch. 3 you think is ready for inserting? Just wondering, not riding you. I don't think there's any immediate urgency until we hear what's going on w/ chapter 2. So...like the subject says, I'm just checking in with you ☺ thanks, rebecca
