ok. Thanks. I don't believe the new FCOY graph is deliberative, as the steering committee stated that they intend to substitute that for the one in the draft CS. Can you at least share that?

Thanks. Derek

Hi Derek,
The Yellowstone Ecosystem Subcommittee will decide what documents to be made available from today's meeting as many of these documents are deliberative.

Hi Jennifer, can you please send me the new FCOY graph that the YES wants to substitute into Chapter 2 (which they apparently did not want to project on the screen today). Also, can you please send your draft language re the 1998 baseline?
Thank you! Derek
