Only real words of wisdom is let's avert a repeat of the James Walks Along incident and give them time to present if they want without taking over the meeting. If we need to talk further, how about 10 am?

So this information was *Apparently a consortium of tribes are signing a treaty

YES mtg. This is where our YES meeting is being held. We do not know if there are plans to somehow present this or otherwise mark it at YES mtg.
Might be something to consider at least planning for the

what is going on with the

FYI. From the release.

The Department of the Interior needs to institute a moratorium on the delisting of the Yellowstone grizzly bear until proper consultation is addressed with each affected tribal nation respectively, so we can get better solutions for the future of the grizzly bear and for our people,” says Shoshone-Bannock

Any words of wisdom? They are likely to be there at the meeting on Monday. JB
