Are folks flexible enough on Tuesday to move our call to the afternoon? How about 2pm start time?

Jodie,

I was talking with Frank and he mentioned that he and possibly Mark could participate in the conversation that you have slated with Chris and Rebecca for Tuesday the 27th. He and Mark will be in Lander next week, but would be willing to call in. He and Mark are both very interested and concerned with the topic of discussion. Dan also is interested and thinks he could most likely be able to participate next Tuesday. The morning would work for Frank, his preference would be the afternoon since there's a better chance that Mark could join in later in the day.
