

From: Matt Hogan
To: Stephen Torbit
Cc: Michael Thabault; Serena Baker
Subject: RE: Draft letter to the tribes
Date: Tuesday, May 26, 2015 8:04:00 AM

Good suggestion.

From: Stephen Torbit [mailto:stephen_torbit@fws.gov]
Sent: Monday, May 25, 2015 4:36 PM
To: Matt Hogan
Cc: Michael Thabault; Serena Baker
Subject: Re: Draft letter to the tribes

I wonder if we should say something like: If delisting is proposed, our overall goal is to work to ensure that the Yellowstone Grizzly population is sustainably managed to ensure it is not necessary to be managed under the ESA again.

Need to be careful so that GOAL doesn't mis-represent the language.

Sent from my iPhone

On May 22, 2015, at 2:13 PM, Matt Hogan <Matt_Hogan@fws.gov> wrote:

Think overall content is good. Think last paragraph needs to be tightened up a bit.

From: Thabault, Michael [mailto:michael_thabault@fws.gov]
Sent: Friday, May 22, 2015 2:06 PM
To: Matt Hogan; Serena Baker; Stephen Torbit
Subject: Draft letter to the tribes

Thoughts about content?

Michael Thabault
Assistant Regional Director
Ecological Services
U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
Mountain Prairie Region
303-236-4210
michael_thabault@fws.gov