Subject: Navajo and Grizzly Bears

I talked to Gloria Tom and she knows that the tribe had discussed what to do about possible grizzly bear delisting, but her recommendation was that they not engage because they had higher priorities to deal with. I told her I would look to see what kind of communication the tribe had sent us or GOAL was using and get back to her.

Her thought was that they don't have time to waste on consultation on bears when there are so many other things they need to consult and work on.
