Chris, Matt has crafted the attached letter to the States in response to their letter of late August. Matt requests that if there are minor edits go ahead and make changes but if there are substantive issues, that those get covered in a call and not through e-mail. I am up to my eyeballs in grouse until probably the end of next week. I will participate in calls as I can. Would like to get caught up on your impressions from last week.

Matt, Nothing flies out at me on the letter. Only observation you may want to rethink how you characterize staff participation in AFWA meeting. Also technical meetings have or will start soon and document editing has begun. May want to acknowledge that in the letter.
