Mike,
I don't have any issues with these points.

Attached are draft PROPOSED talking points for the YES meeting next week. Please review and give me your feedback ASAP. Once we have agreement at our level, I will need to send them to HQ for review and approval.

Our EA/ES folks are also working on potential questions that might arise at the meeting with proposed answers.

I hope we can get this finalized NLT Thursday or Friday of this week. Thanks.

Matt
