In our conversation yesterday, someone suggested adding something to the YES bullets. I'd ask MT to take the lead but between us, we can't remember what it was. Any help?

I remember we were going add one but can't remember what it was. Good with these changes.

I'm fine with this. Mike, I can't remember the specific issue we discussed on the call about adding to TP...did you include this already?

On it. Top priority.

For the YES, and clarification. The GOAL meeting BP will include the Q&A as well.

The YES handout will largely be based off our talking points that were put together, but never used. This is what I heard you say yesterday, Matt. Just want to be sure. Thanks.
