Richard and Chris,

I received some edits from Gary Frazer after I sent you the “final” documents. His requested edits improved the documents and resulted in me changing what I had sent last night. Sorry about that.

Attached you will find two documents: 1. FWS Talking points . . . docx; and 2. Q&As . . . docx. The Q&As remain unchanged, but the FWS Talking points document attached should be considered the updated, true final document.

Gary also had some comments on the handout. I will incorporate those changes on Monday and either send them via FedEx or have staff at the National Elk Refuge print and deliver them to the hotel. Chris, thanks for printing off some in preparation and sorry that those are now out dated.

I will be in all next week. If you need anything, please call. My cell (number below) will be the best since I have a number of meetings scattered throughout the building.

Thanks.
