Good Morning Kiersten,

Yes, the court reporter still has the sign-in sheets from the Yellowstone grizzly bear proposed delisting public meetings. That information, along with a transcript of the public comments should be available soon as part of the record at www.regulations.gov. I just checked the site, and it does not appear they are available yet, but the court reporter is aware there is public interest in viewing these comments as soon as possible.

We appreciate your interest in wildlife conservation and your patience,

Serena

Hi Serena,

Just checking in where the sign-in sheet is. Does the court recorder still have it?

Hi Kiersten,

The posters, and a printable comment form, are available online under Yellowstone Ecosystem:
<http://www.fws.gov/mountain-prairie/es/grizzlyBear.php>.

I'll check on the other. Thanks!

Oops. Forgot one more thing. Is it possible to get the information on the posters/maps that were displayed last night? They were filled with useful information. Thanks again.
