Yes, I'm in the loop on this w Steve and NOAA. They are lining up dates for a couple of meetings. Steve and I would go to Boulder end of this week or early next. Then another meeting in early Feb. I spoke to Justin S. last Friday about the rough plan for meeting etc.
Best, John

Hey John-

Just heard from Mike T. that it looks like Steve Torbit is having a meeting with NOAA on the wolverine modeling. Mike and Marj would like to see if we can include you on that meeting and possibly also someone like Jim Zelenak or Justin Shoemaker.

Happy to chat further.

Thanks!
