Hello Matt, Thank you so much for going to all the effort, helping us out gathering all that information, map and leads.

This will be very helpful for our efforts.

Have a great day and thanks again,

Ed

Hey Ed,

Attached is the data from our wildlife bios. One is an email describing a siting at Amethyst Lake, another is a rough map of locations, and the spreadsheet contains the coordinates.

Here is a link to the Utah Division of Wildlife Resources GIS Data website. Again nothing wolverine, but maybe for future reference.

Here is a link to a Utah DWR article about the wolverine we caught on the camera, and another one that was hit and killed near Bear Lake.
