Thanks, Betty. Yes, I printed out the two documents you sent me, as well as the two previous DPS determinations from the 12-month findings. I'm reading through them. I'm at NCTC this week, but checking email in the evenings.

You probably already have this, but here is the 2010 12-month finding notice for wolverine with our DPS determination (which had a different outcome than our March 11, 2008 12-month finding).

The COSEWIC 2014 assessment document I sent to you yesterday has a different conclusion relative to their Designatable Unit determination from the 2003 COSEWIC assessment that we cited in this 2010 finding.
