Sounds fun! I was hoping to get into crappie spawning action here this past week, but too many fronts moving through lately have them staging in deeper water. Maybe next week will be better.

Didn't see that. More to consider I guess.

Sounds good. Burgess and I fished the 'dream stream' down in South Park last Friday. Did pretty well, caught a big rainbow on a dry. Lots of nice fish rising.

Did you see this? <http://www.reuters.com/article/us-belgium-wildlife-idUSKBN17G0TJ>

Easy drive home. Good to be back.

I need to get up to speed on wolverine. As far as I know we're going for end of FY 18 for a final rule. I need to get a revised timeline out to the group. I'm still on wolverine, part of my "normal" job.

Hey Justin,

Hope your drive was uneventful.

Any updates to wolverine timeline? Also, you'll be staying on wolverine even though you are off the detail right?

Best, John
