Sounds good--the agenda looks pretty straight-forward!

We have a really narrow window of opportunity to get this call done this month. And nothing that works for everyone. I think I'll stick w/ this time for the first call. I can fill you in after the call. If you have anything to share I can relay that to the team. We will be scheduling regular calls, but have not set the day and time for that yet, and we'll do our best to pick a time that works for everyone going forward.

Hey there, I cannot make this call, and the lunch hour on Thursday is often difficult for us. I can do an hour later this day, but then have a 2:00MST.
