Subject: Fisher final rule for your expedited review

Hello all,

Attached is the fisher final rule for your review. Please note that this document does not yet include the Responses to Comments section; our small team is working on that section next, and we hope to get it to you next week (~March 4) . Under this expedited timeline, we have a single week to both complete your review and address your comments. Because of this, our small team will be responding to your concerns in real time next week (March 2-6). The document is due to Gary on March 9. Please do a big picture review of this document and leave out the small editorial issues at this point. If you are able to call me or a member of our small team to discuss any issues that come up during your big picture review, that would be best. We are not looking for track changes documents from each reviewer or even each office because we are focusing on this big picture review at this point. Sorry for the remaining highlighted sections and edits; we ran into issues with Microsoft and the document today (this is also why you are getting a pdf).

Thank you for your help and willingness to review this document in this short amount of time. Please let me or any member of our small team know if you have any questions.

Thanks again!

Angela
