Hagerman National Wildlife Refuge Hunting Regulations 2022–2023

Welcome

Hagerman National Wildlife Refuge, established in 1946, is located on the Big Mineral Arm of Lake Texoma in north central Texas. The refuge provides 11,320 acres for wildlife, fisheries, migratory birds, and compatible public uses including hunting, fishing, and wildlife observation.

Access

The refuge borders private property and U.S. Army Corps of Engineers land. Please respect all landowner rights and refuge signs.

WHEN: Hunters may access the refuge from one-hour before legal sunrise to one-hour after legal sunset only.

WHERE: Hunters may park along open public roads or in designated parking areas to access refuge hunt units. Do not block roads or gates. Entry into gated hunt units is by foot or bicycle only. Access to the refuge from private property is prohibited.
