

Rocky Mountain Arsenal National Wildlife Refuge

Fishing Information

The Blue Goose is the symbol of the National Wildlife Refuge System, a network of lands and waters managed for the benefit of wildlife and people.

Welcome

Welcome to Rocky Mountain Arsenal National Wildlife Refuge (Refuge). We invite you to connect with nature and enjoy the sights and sounds of the Refuge. This 15,000-acre expanse of short and mixed grass prairie is home to more than 330 species of wildlife, including bald eagles, bison, black-footed ferrets, deer, coyotes, burrowing owls, and prairie dogs. The site began as a U.S. Army base and is now managed by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to protect wildlife and habitat.

Hours and General Information

The Refuge is open sunrise to sunset daily and closed on Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day, unless otherwise noted. To protect wildlife and habitat, visitor access is limited to designated trails and roads only. All other Refuge lands and staff roads are closed to visitors. It is your responsibility to know all Refuge regulations and fishing regulations for the protection of wildlife and visitors.

See the Refuge Wildlife Drive and Trails Map brochure, and the website for additional information.

Fishing Regulations

The catch-and-release fishing season is open daily from sunrise to sunset the first Saturday in April through November 30, at Lake Mary and Lake Ladora. Please note Lower Derby is closed to fishing.

General Information

- All anglers must use a rod and reel or fly-fishing rod.
- Anglers must use only barbless hooks. All barbs must be clipped, filed off, or pressed flat.
- Live bait is prohibited on all Refuge waters (i.e., worms, crayfish, etc.).
- Chumming, giggering, snagging, seining, and netting of non-hooked fish is prohibited.
- Anglers with physical impairments may use special casting aids and fishing devices.
- Discard used fishing line in recycling stations at Lake Mary, Lake Ladora, or the Lake Mary Learning Center kiosk.

License Requirements

- A Colorado fishing or small game combination license is required for all anglers 16 years and older who are fishing.
- All anglers are permitted to use one rod and reel or pole and line with one hook per line. A second rod and reel or pole and line with one hook per line is permitted with a Colorado issued second rod stamp.

Fee Requirements

- Anglers must pay a $3.00 daily fishing fee or purchase a Refuge $60.00 season fishing pass while fishing on the Refuge. Purchase a season fishing pass at the Visitor Center Wednesday – Sunday from 9 am – 4 pm.
- High school and college students can fish for free with a current student ID card.
- To pay the daily fishing fee, use the credit card machine at the Lake Mary Learning Center. For cash or check, use the self-serve fishing fee stations with fee envelopes located at Lake Mary Learning Center, North Ladora, South Ladora, and North Havana Ponds kiosks. If paying by check make it payable to U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and include your driver's license number.
