

U.S. FISH AND WILDLIFE SERVICE

Pathways Internships

SEARCHING FOR PASSIONATE STUDENTS INTERESTED IN A CAREER IN CONSERVATION

Are you interested in a fulfilling job and potential career in conservation? Join the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service as a Student Trainee in Biology or Program Support at one of more than 20 locations nationwide!

About the Job Opportunity

As a Student Trainee you will:

- Explore a career path in the conservation field
- Gain skills and experience
- Work alongside professionals in a variety of conservation careers
- Benefits: Professional development and on-station mentoring, $15/hour wage, flexible work hours depending on school schedule, and more!

About the Pathways Internship Program

The Pathways Internship Program provides students enrolled in, or accepted for enrollment in, a qualifying educational institution with paid opportunities to work either part- or full-time with the Service.

The Pathways internship Program welcomes all backgrounds including women, people of color, individuals with disabilities, and other underrepresented populations to gain valuable experience.

To learn more and apply, follow the QR Code listed above. Links to the job announcements and application deadlines will be listed on that site.

